“We can actually come and adore Him (before the Tabernacle) like the shepherds; we can prostrate ourselves before Him like the Magi; we need no longer regret our not having been present at Bethlehem or on Calvary.” --- Blessed Peter Julian Eymard (1811-1868)

BULLETIN INSERTS

Continuing our education on the heresies and errors of not only in the Novus Ordo but amongst some traditionalists as well, this week's inserts deal with the error of Feeneysism. Often it is ignorance of the Church's teachings that one can fall into error, so these inserts, on a wide variety of subjects, will help. For this error, a Catholic must know also who espouses this so it is best to stay away from literature from the late Fr. Feeney, St. Benedict's Center, the Dimond brothers, Charles Coulombe, and others who espouse this error. One must be on guard against opinions which are contrary to what the Church has always taught as they always sow confusion and discord.

ST. BENEDICT'S HOLY GUILDS

Posted on the bulletin board are the contact/coordinators of each guild. They will be in contact to those signed up soon. Please be aware that the coordinators for St. Joseph's and St. Isidore's Guild are still out of town and will call on their return.

BE INFORMED! CLASSES ON THE NOVUS ORDO

Catechism Class will be this Wednesday, Nov. 26 at 6:00 p.m.

HOLY HOUR WITH EXPOSITION & BENEDICTION EVERY WEDNESDAY

Every Wednesday from 7:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. there will be Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, Rosary, Confessions and Benediction. This will be a weekly devotion, specifically to pray for the spiritual and physical growth of St. Benedict's and in reparation to Our Lord's Sacred Heart for sin.

FATHER'S TRAVELS

There will be no Mass this Monday and Tuesday as I am leaving for Georgia to make some hospital and pastoral visits for souls. I will return sometime late Tuesday night.

DAY AFTER THANKSGIVING

Friday, Nov. 28, the day after Thanksgiving, for those in the United States, a dispensation was sought and granted by the Holy See prior to Vatican II by the Bishops of the US from the normal abstinence from meat on Friday for this day. This dispensation still stands as has not been rescinded. So you can enjoy that turkey leg on Friday!

DIFFERENT PHONE NUMBER

Due to the lack of reception, not receiving messages etc of the old phone number, I have a different phone that hopefully will be better, noted on the front of the bulletin. Both numbers will be used and hopefully that will alleviate the problem.

The Way of Salvation (St. Alphonsus de Liguori)

The Last Judgment

The last day is called in Scripture a day of wrath...a day of calamity and misery. –Soph. 1, 15. Such it will be for all those unhappy beings who have died in mortal sin; for on that day their most secret crimes will be made manifest to the whole world, and themselves separated from the company of the saints, and condemned to the eternal prison of hell, where they will suffer all the agonies of ever dying yet always remaining alive. St. Jerome, in the cave of Bethlehem, devoted to continual prayer and penance, trembled at the bare thought of the general judgment. The Ven. F. Juvenal Ancina hearing that sequence for the dead sung: “Dies irae, dies illa,” was so struck with the anticipation of judgment that he left the world and embraced a religious life.

O Jesus! What will become of me on that day? Shall I be placed on Thy right with the elect, or on Thy left with the reprobate? I know that I have deserved to be placed on Thy left, but I know also that Thou wilt still pardon me, if I repent of my sins: wherefore I do repent of them with my whole heart, and am resolved rather to die than offend Thee any more.

As this will be a day of calamity and terror for the reprobate, so will it be a day of joy and triumph for the elect; for then, in the sight of all mankind, will the blessed souls of the elect be proclaimed queens of paradise, and spouses of the immaculate Lamb.

O Jesus! Thy precious blood is my hope. Remember not the offenses that I have committed against Thee, and inflame my whole soul with Thy love. I love Thee, my sovereign good, and I trust that in that day I shall be associated with those loving souls who will praise and love Thee for all eternity.

Choose, my soul; choose now either an eternal crown in that blessed kingdom, where God will be seen and loved face to face in the company of the saints, of the angels, and of Mary the Mother of Jesus; or the prison of hell, where you must weep and lament forever, abandoned by God and by all.

“O Lamb of God that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.” O divine Lamb, who, to deliver us from the pains of hell, was pleased to sacrifice Thy divine life by a bitter death upon the cross, have compassion on us; but more particularly on me who have more than others offended Thee. I am sorry above every evil for having dishonored Thee by my sins, but I hope on that day to honor Thee before men and angels, by proclaiming Thy mercies towards me. O Jesus! Help me to love Thee: I desire Thee alone. O Mary, holy queen, protect me in that day.
