FIRST COMMUNION

Congratulations to Peter Wolbert, son of Jason and Rebecca Wolbert, as he receives our Lord today for the first time in the Most Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. We should be so inclined in our hearts to always receive our Lord in Holy Communion as if it is our first and last time.

ALL SAINTS AND ALL SOULS DAY

Saturday, Nov. 1 is All Saints Day, which is a holy day of obligation which a Catholic must attend under pain of mortal sin, just as are Sunday's. Mass will be at 10 a.m. that day. All Souls day has been transferred to Monday, November 3, although this is not a holy day of obligation. Nonetheless, there will be Mass at 8:30 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. (High Mass). Envelopes are provided on the table for All Souls to be offered at the 6 p.m. Mass. A Mass stipend is not required.

BE INFORMED! CLASSES ON THE NOVUS ORDO

Classes continue this Wednesday at 6:00 p.m. at St. Benedict's. This week's class will look to Modernism's ugly cousin of Liberalism. There will be a short break after this class and classes will resume Nov. 19.

NOVEMBER INDULGENCES

Please read the handout in the bulletin as to the November prayers for the Holy Souls. The Church will remain open Sunday until 10 p.m. and Monday until 10 p.m. for visits to obtain the Toties Quoties indulgence.

THANK YOU!!!!

Thank you to Chris Knight and her family for obtaining and delivering all the used Church items we now have. God bless you!

The Way of Salvation (St. Alphonsus Liguori)

Jesus, the King of Love

St. Fulgentius, contemplating the Infant Jesus fleeing into Egypt from the hands of Herod, who through fear of losing his kingdom sought the infant's life, tenderly exclaims, "Why art thou thus troubled, O Herod? The King who is just now born comes not to overthrow other kings by force of arms, but to subjugate them by dying for them." As though he had said, "The King of heaven is not come to conquer us by war, but by love; he is not come to put us to death, but to rescue us from death by dying for us. Hence it is that Jesus may indeed be styled the King of love.

Oh that I had always loved Thee, O Jesus, my sovereign King, and had never offended Thee! Thou didst spend thirty-three years in pain and labor to save me from being lost, and I have willfully renounced Thee, my sovereign good, for the sake of momentary pleasures. Father of mercy, forgive me, and embrace me with the kiss of peace.

Ungrateful Jews! Why did you refuse to acknowledge for your king one so lovely and so loving towards you? Why did you exclaim, We have no king but Caesar? – John 19, 15. Caesar did not love you, nor desire to die for you; while your true King had descended from heaven upon the earth to die for the love of you.

O sweet Savior! If others will not receive Thee as their King, I will have no other King but Thee: "Thou art my King." I know that Thou alone lovest me; Thou alone hast redeemed me with Thy blood; where then shall I find one who has loved me as Thou hast loved me? I am grieved for having hitherto rejected Thee as my King, by losing my respect for Thee and rebelling against Thee. Pardon me, O Jesus, my King for Thou hast died to purchase pardon for me.

To this end Christ died and arose again, that He might be Lord both of the dead and the living. – Rom. 14, 9

My beloved King, dearest Jesus, since Thou camest upon earth to gain our hearts to Thyself, if hitherto I have resisted Thy loving calls, I will now no longer resist them. Do not disdain to accept me; I now give myself to Thee, I give Thee my whole self. Take, O King, possession of my whole will, and of my whole self; make me faithful to Thee; and grant that I may rather die than betray Thee any more, my King, my love and only good. O Queen, and Mother of my King! O Mary, obtain for me that fidelity which I this day promise to thy divine Son.
