“Oh, how many who were once proud have become humble by devotion to Mary! How many who were passionate have become gentle! How many in the midst of darkness have found light! How many who were in despair have found confidence! How many who were lost have found salvation by the same powerful means.”—

St. Alphonsus Liguori (1696 - 1787)

MONTH OF THE ROSARY

October is denoted as the month of the Holy Rosary by Holy Mother Church. Pope Leo XIII prescribed for the month of October that when the Rosary is prayed publically in a Church (or even privately if one wants) that the Litany of the Blessed Mother and the prayer to St. Joseph be added. Copies of the prayer to St. Joseph can be found by the bulletins. Can we not beseech our Mother more and more everyday for help and protection?

CATECHISM CLASSES

Don't forget this Wednesday at 6:00 p.m. the classes on the Novus Ordo will continue. Topics will include what is the heresy of Modernism and what it looks like.

Holy Day	30 minutes before Mass

FATIMA CONFERENCE

Please keep in your prayers this week the success of the Fatima Conference in Spokane, Washington at Mount St. Michael's. It is a week filled with many talks, retreats and interactions with Traditional Catholics from all over the world. Maybe one could begin planning on attending the conference next year. It is certainly a good and prayerful experience.

THANK YOU!!!!

Thank you to those who have provided meals on Sunday for Father! Such good cooks we have in this parish! It is certainly a grand act of charity and an apostolate after the heart of Our Blessed Mother!

The Way of Salvation (St. Alphonsus de Liguori)
The Practice of Devotion Towards the Great Mother of God

As regards this devotion, I hope that the reader is fully persuaded that, in order to insure eternal salvation, it is most important to be devout to the Most Holy Mary. And if he should wish to be still more convinced of it, I would beg him to read the book I have written, called The Glories of Mary. We shall here speak only of the practices you may observe, that you may obtain the protection of this sovereign Lady.

First, every morning and evening, when you rise and before you go to bed, say three Hail Mary's, adding this short prayer: "By thy pure and immaculate conception, O Mary, make me pure in body and holy in soul!" And put yourself beneath her mantle, that she may keep you that day or that night from sin. And every time you hear the clock strike, say a Hail Mary; do the same whenever you go in or out of the house, and when you pass by any picture or statue of the Blessed Virgin. So also when you begin and finish any of your occupations, such as your study, work, eating, or sleeping, never omit to say a Hail Mary.

Secondly, say the Rosary, meditating on the mysteries, every day, at least five decades. Many devout people also say the Office of Our Lady; it would be well to say at least the Little Office of the Name of Mary, which is very short, and composed of five short psalms.

Thirdly, say an Our Father and Hail Mary every day to the ever-blessed Trinity in thanksgiving for the graces that have been bestowed upon Mary. The Blessed Virgin herself revealed to a person that this devotion was very pleasing to her.

Fourthly, fast on bread and water every Saturday in honor of Mary, or at least on the vigils of her seven feasts; or at least fast in the ordinary way, or eat only one dish, or abstain from something you like. In short, make use of some kind of mortification on Saturday's, and on the above-named vigils, for the sake of this Queen, who as St. Andrew of Crete says, "repays these little things with great graces."
