1 st Friday	5:15 p.m. – 5:55 p.m.
Holy Day	30 minutes before Mass

MASS INTENTIONS

Mass intentions may be submitted for a stipend of $20.00. Mass intention envelopes are available in the vestibule. If by check, please make out to Fr. Oswalt. Also please mark whether the person is a Catholic or not and living or deceased. If a non-Catholic, by all means we can have a Mass said for them but it will be a private Mass, meaning that the intention will not be made public, so in the bulletin it will say Special Intention.

BE INFORMED! CLASSES ON THE NOVUS ORDO

Weekly classes on the differences between the Novus Ordo and the True Catholic Faith with many different topics will begin on Wednesday Oct. 1 at 6:00 p.m. at St. Benedict's Church. A Holy Hour with Rosary, Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, Confessions and Benediction will follow the class beginning on Oct. 15.

DONATIONS

If anyone would like to make private donations for the repairs being made to my truck, please see me (Fr. Oswalt). Some major things need to be done to be able to make it safe and reliable as that is the vehicle I will need to use for the parish. Any help is greatly appreciated.

The Way of Salvation (St. Alphonsus Liguori)
The Patience of God in Waiting for Sinners

Who in this world has so much patience with his equals as God with us His creatures, in bearing with us, and waiting for our repentance, after the many offenses we have committed against Him?

Ah! My God, had I thus offended my brother or my father, long ago would he have driven me from his face! O Father of mercies, cast me not away from Thy face, but have pity on me.

Thou hast mercy, says the wise man, upon all, because Thou canst do all things, and overlookest the sins of men for the sake of repentance.—Wis. 11, 24. Men conceal their sense of the injuries which they receive, either because they are good, and know that it belongs not to themselves to punish those who offend them, or because they are unable, and have not the power to revenge themselves. But to Thee, my God, it does belong to take revenge of the offenses which are committed against Thy infinite majesty; and Thou indeed art able to avenge Thyself, whenever Thou pleaseth; and dost Thou dissemble? Men despise Thee; they make promises to Thee and afterwards betray Thee; and dost Thou seem not to behold them, or as if Thou hadst little concern for Thy honor?

Thus, O Jesus, hast Thou done towards me. Ah! My God, my infinite good, I will no longer despise Thee, I will no longer provoke Thee to chastise me. And why should I delay until Thou abandonest me in reality and condemnest me to hell? I am truly sorry for all my offenses against Thee. I would that I had died rather than offend Thee! Thou art my Lord, Thou hast created me, and Thou hast redeemed me by Thy death; Thou alone hast loved, Thou alone deserves to be loved, and Thou alone shalt be the sole object of my love.

My soul, how could you be so ungrateful and so daring against your God? When you offended Him, could He not have suddenly called you out of life and punished you with hell? And yet He waited for you; instead of chastising you, He preserved your life and gave you good things. But you, instead of being grateful to Him and loving Him for such excessive goodness, you continued to offend Him!

O my Lord, since Thou hast waited for me with so great mercy, I give Thee thanks. I am sorry for having offended Thee. I love Thee. I might at this hour have dwelt in hell, where I could not have repented, nor have loved Thee. But now that I can repent, I grieve with my whole heart for having offended Thy infinite goodness; and I love Thee above all things, more than I love myself. Forgive me, and grant that from this day I may love no other but Thee, who hast so loved me. O Mary, Mother of God, assist me by thy holy intercession!
